A Little Latin...A Little History.

Numa built the temple of Janus to indicate peace and war. He negotiated peace with Rome’s neighbors and had the temple doors shut. The closed doors were a symbol of peace. They remained shut throughout Numa’s reign of forty years. He ruled until his death in 674 BC.

Easter Breakfast - Please sign-up! A sign-up sheet is located on the board next to the church kitchen. Donations need to be brought in no later than Thursday, April 5 to the church kitchen.
