“How much homework do you have?” – Does this sound familiar?

All students at the Academy have assignment sheets or an assignment notebook. Teachers put assignments on the board so that students are able to copy them on to their assignment sheet/book. In some cases teachers are initialing the assignment sheet/book so that you as a parent know what assignments were given that day. If your child is not filling out the assignment sheet/book or not bringing it home, then you as a parent are not able to track your child’s progress. A young scholar must take his work seriously and will need guidance from mother and father. New lessons must continue, but the child who has not completed his assigned work lacks the knowledge and skills to continue with his classmates and to learn. Help your young scholar by checking their assignment sheet/book each night.

Academy and Cherub Choirs and Sunday School Children – sing for both Palm Sunday Divine Services, April 1. All choristers should be present and ready to sing at 7:15am.

This year there are youth and adult confirmations. We encourage everyone to come to this unique service that marks the transition from death to resurrection and new life in Christ. Weather permitting, we begin outdoors with the service of light and process into the nave of the Church for the Vigil Readings, Confirmations, and the announcement of our Lord's resurrection. The approximate time of the service is 2 to 2 ½ hours.
