Spring? Well, maybe it’s spring and maybe not! Until the warm part of spring shows up please remember to send the jackets and coats with your child. We continue to go outside for recess and gym class. Thank you!

Academy Choir— sings for both services Sunday, April 22. All choristers should be present and ready to sing at 7:15am.

Parents’ Association Meeting Date Change— our next Parent’s Association meeting scheduled originally in April will instead be on Sunday, May 6 after the late service. Please bring a generous dish to pass.

We Invite You . . . to take a poster advertising the Third Annual Cherub and Academy Choir Spring Concert to your place of work or business. Perhaps you could use a flyer to invite a guest, grandparent, or friend for the evening’s event. Maybe, you’d like to take a few with you when out shopping, to post on a community bulletin board? Or, are you more electronically minded? You can link to the website (peacelutheranacademy.org) article advertising the concert (under “News”), or download a pdf of one of the posters to send as an attachment to invite all your e-friends. Posters and flyers are on the Scrip counter in the narthex.

Academy Fundraiser Cookbook - The Academy is looking to put together a cookbook for their next fundraiser. If you are interested in submitting a favorite recipe or two please fill out a recipe form attached. Please return completed recipe forms to the box located in the office by July 1st. You can also email Laura Ferguson any recipes at fergusons@charter.net. Should you have any questions, please contact Laura Ferguson or Karen Frerking.

A Little Latin...A Little History.

The peaceful reign of Numa Pompilius gave way to the militaristic and violent reign of Tullus Hostilius (it’s in the name) (573-534 BC). He waged war on former allies, the Alba Longa and the Etruscans. The king of Alba Longa, wanting to be on the side of the victor of the battle between Rome and the Etruscan city-state Fidenae, did not choose between either. Upon the Roman victory, Hostilius had the Alba Longa king torn in two by chariots to prove the penalty of indecisiveness. On a lighter note, the Curia Hostilia (the Senate House) was built during Hostilius’ reign.
