Ascension Festival Service – May 8, 2013

At the 6:45pm Divine Service on Wednesday, May 8, we will celebrate the Ascension of Our Lord to the Father’s right hand where He rules all things for the sake of His bride, the Church. Don’t miss this important celebration! Jesus defeated sin, death, and hell in His death upon the cross, and His ascension marks the glorification of the resurrected Lord over all these enemies for the sake of His Church. He graciously rules in His Church through the precious Gospel and Sacraments and in His ascension we behold the future glory that we shall all share with Him.

A Little Latin... A Little Roman Villa:

Whether a domus or a villa, Roman homes were very sparsely furnished. Couches were used both for sleeping and eating. Tables were portable; moving them to which ever room needed them. Possessions were stored in wooded chests. Tidiness and order was the Roman way.
