Read To Me, Please! Here are some suggestions for a good book to read to your children each night. On the Banks of Plum Creek by Laura Ingalls Wilder. The adventures of Laura Ingalls and her family continue as they leave their little house on the prairie and travel in their covered wagon to Minnesota. Here they settle in a little house made of sod beside the banks of beautiful Plum Creek. Or Big Red by Jim Kjelgaard: “Big Red” was a champion Irish setter; Danny a young trapper who knew more about the ways of varmints and hounds than of the world of fancy kennels and dog shows. But Red’s owner knew a good dog man when he saw one, and entrusted Red to Danny’s training.

Medieval Feast Needs: Wanted: 3-4 “players” for the Feast: Hamlet, Horatio, and 1-2 gravediggers for the graveyard scene (no lines to memorize, willing to dress in simple costumes and dig a grave). Decorations for a Viking Mead Hall: taxidermied animals, animal horns, skins, furs, or animal print fabrics; 1-2 shovels; ceramic goblets, wood dishes, wood utensils, or drinking horn; shields and swords. Please drop off decorations by the AM of March 12. You can pick them up after the feast on March 13.

To Everyone An Answer: Christian Charity and the Scriptural Teaching on Work

“If anyone will not work, neither shall he eat.” 2 Thessalonians 3:10. This Sunday, March 9 is the last in the series To Everyone an Answer Soup and Chili Supper for the season. It will address the Christian understanding of work and charity. How is the Church to understand and practice mercy in caring for the temporal needs of society’s needy and downtrodden? We gather together for the supper and study from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. Please sign up to bring a dish to pass.
